Current Progress

Measure	Current Result	Measurement Date
Oral reading fluency	88 WCPM	2026-01-23

On January 23, 2026, Sofia read 88 words correct per minute on the curriculum-based oral reading fluency measure. This result of 88 WCPM is a measured curriculum-based oral reading fluency score. This report records current progress toward the existing annual goal. It does not revise present levels, rewrite the IEP, or change special education services, accommodations, or eligibility.

Instructional Notes

Sofia Martinez continues to receive specialized reading instruction under the current IEP. Additional practice with connected grade-level text remains part of ongoing instruction during the remainder of the goal period.

Next Review

Progress will continue to be monitored using curriculum-based oral reading fluency probes. No change to eligibility, services, or accommodations is made in this report.
