These notes record discussion concerning Sofia Martinez. They are meeting notes, not an IEP, not an IEP amendment, and not a prior written notice. No change to the IEP is in effect as of this meeting date.

Current IEP Services Discussed

The IEP currently in effect provides specialized reading instruction five sessions per week for 45 minutes per session in a special education setting to address Sofia's reading need.

Discussion

The team discussed reducing specialized reading instruction from five sessions per week to three sessions per week while maintaining 45-minute sessions.

The team discussed increasing Sofia's time in general education instruction while continuing direct specialized reading instruction.

The team recorded this as a discussion of a possible IEP amendment. The IEP in effect as of this meeting date is unchanged. These notes do not establish a service start date and do not implement a service change.

Items Not Decided In These Notes

- These notes do not amend the IEP.
- These notes do not change eligibility, annual goals, or accommodations.
- The team recorded a discussion only and did not implement a service change.
- Any service change would require a written IEP amendment and a later operative IEP.

Participants

Parent/guardian, general education teacher, special education teacher, and district representative participated. No personal names, telephone numbers, or addresses are recorded in this synthetic record.
